

Origami Place
Discover paperfolding, materials galore!

Lisa B. Corfman: As a proud & caring educator & origami artist, I make, sell, teach & showcase the art form. I have a BFA and love sharing the joy of paperfolding.

Origami Inspired Making: Fine Art, Crafts, Stationery, Jewelry, Models, Publications & Supplies.

Selling: Wholesale, consignment, and commissions – online, at art fairs, and in retail internationally. Examples: deCordova Shop, 6 Bridges Gallery, Kolbo Fine Judaica, the Handworks Gallery of American Crafts, and others.

Teaching: At museum, libraries, schools & camps (online and in-person). Subjects of origami models, creative techniques, and professional portfolio. Examples: Work holiday entertainment, regular afterschool sessions, library workshops, and zoom clubs.

Showcasing: Curate exhibitions, installations, solo and group shows. Examples: Curation of origami at the Charles River Museum. Grant installation at the Mill in Maynard. Solo show at the New York Art Connection. Group shows at colleges, art centers, museums, and galleries.
